Probe Started As Elderly Man Dies From Head Blow

Charles Epperson, 72, expired at the Nevada County Hospital Saturday and the sheriff's office and the district attorney are continuing an investigation into the cause of his death. District Attorfney Harold Berliner said action will be taken to fix the blame within the next week.

On the weekend of November 14-15, the man and his son, Olen, 47, were stopped on Donner Summit when their car froze up and stalled in a snow bank.

The following morning, Patrolman Edward McCallen was called when a report was received that two men were "apparently dead" in the car. Deputy Sheriff Leo Zander was called and found the elder Epperson unconscious from an apparent blow on the head. He was taken to Dr. E. O. Hendrickson and it was disclosed he had suffered a fractured skull and was taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital and later removed to the county hospital.

The son was booked on a drunk charge and sentenced to serve 15 days in the county jail.

Officers were advised the two men had been quarreling and that the son struck the father on the head with a bottle.

The two were returning to Ashland, Oregon, after a visit in Texas, officers were advised.

Epperson is survived by his son, Olen and two other sons, Oroville of Fresno and Donald of Dallasport, Oregon: a daughter, Mrs. Irene Hicks of Temple, Texas; three sisters and six grandchildren.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the department Monday night Les Hadley was chosen to fill the unexpired term of Tony St. Claire on the board and Dr. Affeldt was chosen to officiate as deputy fire chief, a job concerned with organizational matters rather than fire fighting.

All firemen and those interested in becoming members of the department are invited to the dinner next Thursday.

STORM ADDS WATER TO LAKE IN MONTH

Claude Dukes, federal water master, has reported recent stormy weather has added 14,000 acre feet of water to Lake Tahoe.

Dukes said the last major storm boosted the lake's elevation .12 of an inch. Since the weekend, he said, the lake level has been dropping slowly but high winds have prevented accurate measurements.

The outflow from Lake Tahoe may be boosted December 1st to meet Floriston flow rates established by federal court decree. At that time, Dukes would take more water from Boca Reservoir.

Dukes said the Tahoe and Boca flow adjustments were made during the weekend and would be readjusted throughout the winter to allow maximum storage for 1965 use.

S. P. Charged In Blast Of Magazine

The district attorney's office at Auburn has filed a complaint against the Southern Pacific Company for failing to construct a bullet and weather proof powder magazine near Colfax where two Colfax teenagers, including Robert Louis Becker, 14, former Truckee boy, were killed last September when it exploded.

District Attorney Daniel J. Higgins ordered representatives of the company to appear at 10 a. m. December 4 in the Colfax Judicial District Court to answer the misdemeanor charge.

The magazine, described as being constructed on three-eighths inch steel plate placed on a concrete slab, blew up September 27 killing the Becker boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Becker, former Donner Lake residents, and Leroy Sanders of Colfax. A bullet from a high powered rifle set off the fatal blast.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Christmas shopping will start in earnest right after Thanksgiving and we offer a suggestion which will save you money, time and trouble and make your community a better place in which to live. That suggestion is trade with your local merchants. You will find his stocks complete, his prices equal, if not lower, than those in larger cities and you will have the satisfaction of patronizing a neighbor who spends his money to make your community a better one. Why not take your shopping list to your nearby store this year and enjoy the double satisfaction of pleasing yourself and doing your home town a good turn? You'll find your Truckee and North Tahoe merchants ready to satisfy your every want.

The opening of the freeway over Donner Summit is a real blessing for motorists, but a word of caution should be issued. The freeway is NOT a speedway. There is a definite danger that some may not realize the grade is all downhill, and that even with the best brakes, a two-ton car will not stop on a dime at high speed. We suggest that motorists take it a little easy, enjoy the view and reach the bottom of the grade safely.

Last Rites Are Held For Fred Reynolds

Last rites were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Community Methodist Church at Kings Beach for Fred Reynolds, 70, a resident of Kings Beach for the past 11 years who expired here Friday. Rev. Besides his wife, Hanna of Kings Beach, Reynolds is survived by a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Stillwell of Belmont, a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Fipp and two grandchildren, Warren and Susan Fipp of Silver Springs, Maryland.

Study Underway To Control Water In Truckee River

A proposed long-range study designed to control flood waters on the Truckee river and prevent damage to property in Reno and the Truckee Meadows area, got under way in Reno Wednesday at a public hearing conducted by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The four-year study program is expected to result in recommendations for dams, levees and other similar projects throughout the Truckee River Basin. The study would also have a bearing on Lake Tahoe and Pyramid Lake, as well as tributaries to the Truckee.

The meeting was conducted by Colonel Robert Mathe, district engineer from Sacramento, who said the study will be made with particular attention given to the requirements for additional flood control below Reno.

Water storage and recreation benefit will also be considered in the study, William A. Doyle, chief of the Sacramento district project planning branch, explained.

Representatives of California Department of Water Resources and the Placer and El Dorado counties water resources board were present to urge full protection for this state in the planning. They said that California is entitled to an equitable share of any Truckee River water salvaged through the project.

Local Government Costs Revealed

For the first time in five years the bureau of census has made a detailed study of finances in each of the 3,100 counties throughout the United States, reported in the current Census of Government.

The figures show that for people living in Nevada County, the total cost of local government per year is $336 per capita, of which $87 was for education.

The average in the rest of the United States is $214 per capita and in California counties, $342.

In Nevada County, the general debt outstanding was equivalent to $374 per capita, the report indicated. Nationally, the debt of the local governments averaged $259 per capita and in California, $260.

The report shows, in the case of Nevada County, that direct general expenditures of $336 per capita were offset by general revenue amounting to $341 per capita.

Of this, $224 came from local taxes, fees and charges and the balance from federal and state funds.

A department of fish and game proposal to plant up to 20,000 pounds of 12-inch rainbow trout in Lake Tahoe each year was approved by the California Fish and Game Commission at a November meeting in Redding.

The proposal was based on findings of the Lake Tahoe fisheries study which determined that plantingt of 12-inch sized rainbow trout yielded the best results for anglers. The department has been planting approximately 20,000 pounds of various sizes and species of fish in the lake each year during the study.

Nevada expects to plant an additional 6,500 pounds of 12-inch sized rainbow trout each year.

Fisheries people from the Nevada and California Fish and Game Departments are part of a task force to work out a schedule of planting. These include George Warner and Alan Pollitt of California and Jack Derringer and Ted Frantz of Nevada. Their recommendations are expected by December 1.

CREDIT TO SCORERS IN FOOTBALL GAME

Someone in reporting the results of the football game at Del Oro, the concluding game of the season for the Tahoe Truckee Wolverines, and probably the best played contest of the year, fouled up on the players scoring touchdowns.

Credit should go to the boys responsible and we hasten to correct the error made in the report last week.

Steve Davis led his teammates in crossing the goal line twice, while Greg Moore, Warren Jay and Chuck Spillner each scored a TD. The game ended 31 to 6 in favor of the Wolverines.

Traffic Flows On New Freeway To Eliminate Tieups

The 10½-mile section of Interstate 80 freeway over the Donner Summit was opened to all traffic for the first time last Friday afternoon at 3 p. m.

The four-lane section over this historic portion of the Sierra has been under construction for more than four years and replaces the last remaining two-lane roadway on old U. S. 40 between San Francisco and the Nevada state line.

W. L. Warren, district engineer, stated that snow removal crews, under the direction of Highway Superintendent Frank Fox of Truckee, have performed a monumental task in preparing the highway for traffic after the heavy snowfall earlier this month.

The old road will be kept open all winter to provide access to ski lodges as far as the old summit, as well as the section along the north shore of Donner Lake. The old Donner grade, however, is closed.

Robert Roth, in charge of the Truckee quarantine station said 6,524 cars, 240 trucks and 25 buses were checked through the station Sunday going west and there was no tie up as the vehicles flowed over the summit without incident.

On the old road, this number of vehicles may well have caused lengthy delays. At the peak of weekend travel during the summer there were up to 10,000 vehicles daily and there were times tieups occurred for hours.

These delays were never caused at the quarantine station, but were the fault of inexperienced drivers, motor trouble and the fact that only one narrow, steep lane was provided over the summit.

Personnel Changes At Truckee Station

Personnel changes at the Truckee quarantine station were announced this week by Robert Roth, who is in charge of the station for the department of agriculture.

Fred Sandridge has been transferred to Daggett on a promotion to intermediate inspector and has left, accompanied by Mrs. Sandridge.

The Frank Rothgery family has also departed for San Francisco where he will be a port inspector on ships arriving there.

Clint Grady, a long-time inspector at the local station has received a medical retirement and is now living in Sacramento, with Mrs. Grady.

Replacing those who have left are Donald Busch, who had been stationed at Daggett and who has arrived with Mrs. Busch to reside here, and Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson and two sons of Vidal on the Arizona border. Walter Klehn, who had been working on a temporary basis here has now obtained a permanent status.

Roth said there are now 15 permanent employes and two temporary inspectors at the station. One of the latter will leave December 15 and the other after the first of the year.

Smart Money

When you consider it carefully, you'll find Series E Savings Bonds are a very smart place to put your money.

For one thing, they pay you a guaranteed rate of interest—$4 back for every $3 you put in. Which gives you a pretty sound basis for building a future.

Bonds also help make sure you'll have a future in the first place. Because they do a lot to strengthen Uncle Sam's hand in this mixed-up world of ours.

In addition, Bonds are loss-proof: the Treasury Department gives you new ones free if yours should be misplaced, stolen or destroyed. They offer certain tax advantages: you pay no state or local income tax and can defer federal tax until you cash them.

And they convert easily into cash when you need it.

Tens of millions of smart Americans buy Savings Bonds regularly. Do the smart thing and join them.

The U. S. Treasury's newest ambassador!

Mrs. Adaline Lieberg of Pocatello, Idaho, has been chosen "Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds of 1964." A busy wife and mother of 2 children, Mrs. Lieberg is even busier this year as she tours the country on behalf of U. S. Savings Bonds.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Summing up the political situation in California today is something like scrambling eggs and attempting to keep the yolks separate—it just can't be done when the eggs are all in the same bowl.

Governor Edmund G. Brown, who long has been tabbed for a federal appointment under President Johnson, added to the confusion at his press conference when he announced the president has asked him to run for a third term as governor.

This means, as far as can be determined now, that the governor won't be going to Washington. Whether the president actually wants Governor Brown to be a third term governor, or whether he thinks Brown would be defeated in the primary by some other Democrat remains to be seen. But in any event, there is much speculation going on in Sacramento to the effect that this was President Johnson's polite way of telling Governor Brown there is no room for him on the federal scene.

To confuse the issue further, Assemblyman Jesse W. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, speaker of the house, who is considered Brown's most formidable competitor two years hence, said flatly that he has advised Governor Brown he will support him for a third term. Unruh says he consistently said this.

But still there are those who think perhaps Unruh has tongue in cheek when making this statement. The speaker has hardly spent several years building up a strong following just to turn it over to the reelection of Governor Brown two years hence.

And along with this confusion, Alan Cranston, state controller, feels that he is stronger than when he was defeated in the primaries by Pierre Salinger, who in turn was tipped over by George Murphy, the Republican candidate.

Cranston, while he has made no decision except to stay out of the governor's race if Brown decides to run for a third term, is giving the situation a hard look.

So far, Glenn Anderson, lieutenant-governor, has kept still, but it is well known he has his eye on the top spot for a good many years now.

Thus, the Democratic ranks, fed on constant success at the polls, have become something like the Republican ranks several years ago when too many top men aspired to take over the reins. The result was that they lost out altogether when Governor Brown was elected. Whether history repeats itself in the case of the Democrats remains to be seen.

Despite Speaker Unruh's protestations of support for Governor Brown, the observers give him the best chance to become the Democratic party's standard bearer two years from now. He himself admits that a lot can happen in two years. And meanwhile, he doesn't intend to let the public forget he is in the political scene.

Speaker Unruh intends to make more speeches, appear in public more, and strive for accomplishment of the goals of the Democratic party. As he put it, "bring into being the goals set" at the beginning of the Brown administration.

While it's too early to say Democratic leaders are working at cross-purposes, it at least is a fact that evidence shows their unity being marked for a definite exercise in dis-unity in the next two years.

Forest Road Hearing Dates Announced

Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson of the second, mountain valley counties, district today announced that the public works committee will hold field hearings in California on forest road matters.

"Enactment of S. 1147 in the closing days of the 88th congress was a major step in the clarification of rights of the federal government and timber purchasers in the development of forest roads and trails in connection with timber sales," Congressman Johnson said, "however, there still are some questions which remain unresolved and should be explored by the congress."

Congressman Johnson, who was an early sponsor of legislation to clarify forest road and trail questions, had proposed the field hearings so that the views of timber and other interests in the feld might be heard by the house of representatives subcommittee on roads which has jurisdiction on these matters.

A five man subcommittee headed by Congressman John C. Kluczynski of Illinois will hold the hearings commencing November 30th in San Francisco. It is expected the committee also will visit several other areas in California including El Dorado County and Humboldt County.

Tuesday the committee will travel to Placer and El Dorado counties where they will inspect forest roads and trails and discuss problems with forestry and industry officials. An on the road inspection of Highway 50 will take place during the afternoon with formal hearings on the serious need for improvement of Highway 50 to be held the following day, Wednesday, December 2, at the convention hall of the Tahoe Sands Motel, Lake Tahoe.

A THOUSAND WELCOMES.—"Warrior," a German Shepherd pup, here joins the welcoming committee for the 1,000th youngster to find a home at Hanna Boys' Center, the western "boys' town" near Sonoma, Calif. With the lad and the dog is Rt. Rev. William L. O'Connor, Hanna Center's director. The young newcomer arrived in time for the home's 15th anniversary open house scheduled for Nov. 29.

All are welcome and no collection will be taken.
The Thanksgiving Day Proclamation by the President of the United States will be read and there will be a period devoted to voluntary expressions of gratitude by individual Christian Scientists for the blessings which a more spiritual understanding of God and man has brought into their lives during the past year.
A Scriptural selection from Luke's Gospel which will be a part of the Lesson-Sermon relates Jesus' healing of the ten lepers—"one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks:—And Jesus answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give Glory to God, save this stranger" (17:15-18).
A correlative passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Of the ten lepers whom Jesus healed, but one returned to give God thanks,—that is, to acknowledge the divine Principle which had healed Him" (p. 94).

DONNER DOINGS

Last Friday, November 20, will be a day we'll never forget. Interstate 80, the new freeway over Donner Summit was opened to through traffic, leaving us on old Hiway 40 in awesome quiet.
Some of us who were in Truckee late that afternoon were surprised to find we couldn't get back to our houses the regular way and had to drive on the new road up to the Donner Lake turnoff at the west end, and double back. The access road connecting the freeway at the Donner Park end wasn't completed until the next day.
What a relief to have the trucks off with only an occasional car passing by now.
Mrs. Nesbit at Donner Lake Lodge says that their business at the bar, coffee shop and dining room is still going strong—that a lot of people still like to drive along the lake and stop there.

Attended the opening of the River Ranch last weekend. It's that white building with the bright blue roof right on the Truckee river at the entrance of Alpine Meadows.
Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Mein took over the old Deer Park Lodge there and have transformed it into an attractive dining spot with a bar that overlooks the river. Stone and wood are beautifully combined and the three colorful orange-toned lights reflect in the windows making it look like there are many more.
Young Sue and Norm McKinnon are the managers.

Skiing was fantastic everywhere in the area. The light powdery snow made it easy for all to get their ski legs back in shape again.
Alpine Meadows was especially good on their opening day Saturday. Tim Sullivan hopes for a big season.
Eric Johnson was seen guiding members of the Southern California Ski Writers group up over Ward Peak to the new development, Twin Peaks. They had good skiing over the new snow, where John Reiley plans a complete new ski area.
Radio and TV personality Art Linkletter and his family were up to see it too.

Sorry I goofed about your meeting place gals, but understand you had a good turnout at the Riverside Hotel in Truckee for the Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary dinner last Thursday night.

Finally noticed some action along the shore line, the Kokonee are spauning and it's sure fascinating to watch them thrash around depositing their eggs in the sand.
Mrs. Scardina of Loch Leven Lodge called the other day to tell me that they have been watching the Kokonee for almost a month where they are. It's amazing how the fish turn from a bright silver to a deep red and that their noses become elongated and black.
Hope Donner has a good supply of trout for fishermen next year.

Home Destroyed By Fire At Kings Beach Wednesday

KINGS BEACH—Damage estimated at $10,000 was caused by fire which razed the M. J. Curtis home at Kings Beach last Wednesday night. The one-story, six room home was only two doors from where the North Tahoe Fire Protection District board of directors were meeting at the time with Fire Chief Curtis Hart and Assistant Chief Charles Mohnike in the fire station.

When the alarm sounded, the meeting naturally broke up and Mohnike grabbed a hose line, separating the station and the burning building and battled the flames single handed until the equipment arrived. In so doing, he suffered third degree burns on his face.

Curtis, custodian at the Kings Beach school and his family were absent at the time, but two cats were destroyed. Chief Hart said he believed the fire had been smoldering for some time before breaking out to destroy the living room and hallway and blacken the balance of the house.

It was not learned immediately what caused the blaze.

Hart and Mohnike were assisted by 12 volunteers and the Carnelian Bay station sent two trucks.

The national average investment per farm is $42,000 compared with $168,000 in California.

ATTENDS MEETING

Allen L. Sklar, M. D., of Brockway, attended the sixteenth annual meeting of the California Academy of General Practice held at the San Francisco's Hilton. Over 1500 members of the academy attended the four day session. Dr. Sklar, who is active in the preceptorship program of the University of California Medical Center's program, attended the preceptorship committee breakfast at the Hilton.

Health Studies Are Made Of Students

An extensive study is being undertaken to determine the relationship between health problems of school chi'dren and their school achievement.

The study will be conducted under the direction of B. Otis Cobb, M. D., Assistant Professor of Health Education at Stanford University, and Leonard J. Dalton, Ed. D., who has held numerous teaching positions on College Staffs in Health Education areas. They will be assisted by a large corps of specialists in the fields of education, medicine and behavioral science. It is being supported through a grant from the Diary Council of Ca'ifornia.

The project, the largest of this type ever conducted in the schools of this country, will involve 2,000 elementary and secondary students in many areas of California. Mobile units will be moved into the selected school areas. Extensive physical examinations will be conducted on each student participant. Information will be obtained from parents and school records in areas such as scholarship, nutrition and historical data.

Electronic computers will be used to analyze the vast amount of information collected.

It is hoped that this study will benefit educators and health experts by showing the most effective methods of detecting and improving or correcting health problems. Another projected outcome is to determine the exact re'ationships of health problems to school achievement. It is expected that computer analysis will lead to the discovery of this and other meaningful relationships.

How much safety do you want for your money?

Financial safety comes in all shapes and sizes. There are safe investments and risky investments—and ones that are in between. Depending upon how much risk you want to take, your money can be invested in a variety of ways.

Your savings, however, are another thing. This is money you do not want to risk—no matter how safe the investment appears. This is money you want to be able to count on at all times and under all conditions. And when you want your money that safe and that available—you want it in the bank.

DON'T BE A LITTERBUG! KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL

Thanksgiving Day Message From Bizz

By CONGRESSMAN (BIZZ) JOHNSON

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day, a day of thanks for the benefits of the year behind us and prayers for continued successes in the year ahead. President Lyndon B. Johnson has proclaimed the holiday in a formal proclamation which could well serve as a reaffirmation of the freedoms for which this nation has always stood.

I would like to share with you the President's thoughts about our American way of life. In his proclamation, President Johnson stated:

"As the harvest season draws to a close and our storehouses bulge with the bounty of the land, it is our desire to observe, in the custom and tradition of our forebears, a special day dedicated to giving thanks to God—a day on which to lay aside our daily tasks and cares and pay joyous homage to Him.

"We are impelled to raise our voices in His praise and to proclaim our heartfelt gratitude for another year in which we have been blessed with a bountiful harvest, with intellectual, humanitarian, economic, scientific, and technical advances and achievements, and with other gains too numerous to mention.

"Although we have been blessed with unsurpassed prosperity, we recognize that poverty and want exist throughout the world—even among us—and we pledge ourselves to the eradication of those evils.

"We know, too, that the foundation for a peaceful world is still to be built and that even now armed strife exists in parts of the world. We are saddened that gallant men of our Armed Services have fallen in the eternal quest for peace with freedom, dignity, and justice for all. We share with their bereaved families and friends a sense of tragic loss. In the words of Abraham Lincoln, we resolve 'that these honored dead shall not have died in vain,' and vow that their loss will spur us ever onward until man's great dream of universal peace is realized.

"Yet we are filled with an instinctive impulse to give thanks for—our free society of free men, free institutions, and free elections;—our freedom of speech, our freedom of the press, and our freedom to worship as our conscience dictates;—our emphasis upon the dignity, equality, and worth of man;—our humanitarian instincts;—our unalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;—our confidence in our ability to meet the challenges of today and of the future.

"For these are the things that set us apart as a Nation—that made our Nation great—that will keep our Nation great.

"So as our forefathers in Virginia, in New England, and throughout this land have done for more than three and one-half centuries, let us appoint a special day on which all of us, in keeping with the dictates of our own conscience, will give thanks to the Lord for His manifold blessings. And on that day, let us rededicate ourselves to meeting the challenges of the present with the fortitude and faith with which our forefathers met the challenges of the past."

RENO AND PALMER 4 NOW IN TOPAZ ROOM

CRYSTAL BAY—Belying their names, the Reno and Palmer Four with Cindy Layne, now holding forth on the Topaz Room stage of North Lake Tahoe's Nevada Lodge. are three bright young talents, not a quintet.

But the trio makes up in vivacity what they lack in numbers. The two brothers, Reno and Palmer Four, score with sparkling wit and thigh-thumping slapstick as well as solid song entertainment. Adding to the party, lovely Cindy Layne, a statuesque, lithesome blond, lends her impressive comedy and vocal abilities to this fast-rising musical comedy aggregation.

Starting their final week in the Nevada Lodge's glittering Topaz Room, the Reno and Palmer Four with Cindy Layne star through December 7.

No Free Trees For Sacramento Offices

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The Christmas spirit in most of the state buildings in Sacramento may be more from the heart and pocketbook this year.

The state division of forestry has informed the various agencies it is discontinuing its program of furnishing Christmas trees for the offices.

"We are eliminating the furnishing of trees to state offices except for a few for the governor's office," F. H. Raymond, chief of the division of forestry said.

Raymond said the division had taken trees previously from a forest in Shasta county and, at one time, furnished nearly 300 treees for the various offices. However, he said there was too much difficulty and cost in selecting, cutting, storing and hauling the trees.

It was expected the offices would purchase their trees through the normal channels, from local lots.

The forestry policy will have no effect on the huge Christmas tree which annually is erected in the rotunda of the state capitol building as it never was furnished by the division of forestry.

SCHOOL BOARDS MAY TELL PRIVATE ACTION

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — A majority of the members of a school board may determine to make all or any portion of the minutes of an executive board session dealing with personnel matters public, "regardless of the concurrence of the parties involved," Attorney General Thomas C. Lynch has ruled.

The opinion said hearings concerned with hiring or firing of personnel, or complaints or charges brought against them may be held by a school board in secret session, and minutes of such hearings are not available to the public unless the board so determines.

Under the Ralph M. Brown act on secret meetings by public bodies, all meetings shall be open except those for matters pertaining to personnel. However, any employes against whom charges or complaints have been brought may request a public hearing.

The opinion came in answer to a question from Douglas J. Maloney, county counsel of Marin county.

Walter Jellin was feted by his family on his November 25 birth date.

NORDIC SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED FOR '65

The FWSA's nordic clinic schedule has been announced by Al Vincelette, the Olympic veteran of San Rasmon who directs the program. He will be assisted by Crosby Perry Smith of Sacramento, Bob Johnsen of San Francisco, Jerry Wetzel of Reno, Herb Scott of Chico State College, Cedric Sherrer of Al Tahoe and Harry Ericson of Reno.

Officials, competitors and coacher will gather December 26 to 31 in Squaw Valley for training sessions at the Papoose Ski Area. Supplementary point competitions are set for December 31 at Heavenly Valley, January 23-24 at Reno's Mt. Rose Bowl, February 13-14 at Snow Summit and March 6-7 in Squaw Valley.

Top rated juniors will be picked to represent this division in the junior nationals at Bend, Oregon, March 15 to 21.

Purpose of the clinics is to stimulate interest among junior and high school skiers in cross country racing and jumping competition. The sessions will provide youngsters with an opportunity to ski and learn from some of the top Nordic ski veterans now residing in California and Nevada.
